

Proposal Summary

First Things First Regional Needs and Assets

Vender Name: MGT of America, Inc.

Proposal is for the following Region: Hualapai Indian Tribe

Not to Exceed Hourly Rate: $120.00

Proposed Cost for Each Region: Entire State: $526,681 ($16,989.71 per region)

Contact Information: Candice King, Project Director – (850) 386-3191 ext. 4320 or CKing@mgtamer.com

The proposal indicates that the vender has experience and knowledge of:

	NOTES
Conducing community assessments	Proposal indicates work with Children’s Action Alliance (CAA), Phoenix Union High School District, Washington Elementary School District, Arizona State School for the Deaf & Blind and a number of other agencies in Arizona.
Data Analysis	Proposal indicates early childhood development and community data collection experience. Understanding of needs assessments, survey research and data collection/analysis. Experience in performing long-term, complex research and program evaluation using multi-source data collection and integration methods. Services include needs assessments, program evaluation, strategic planning, funding studies for Counties, Cities, and States across the United States.
Regional Partnership Council Area	Proposal indicates research experience in Arizona working with schools and other local agencies in the State. Agency is located out of state, however, a team of staff are located in AZ.
If proposal is for Tribal Region, vender indicates timelines and approaches appropriate to communities	Proposal indicates emphasis on the collection of unique information specific to each region. For Tribal Regions, MGT will Partner with EndVision, a Research firm based in Utah with substantive experience and contacts in tribal areas through their evaluation of the BIE’s Reading First Grant.
Willingness to expand scope beyond base report:	Yes. The proposal for the base report also includes a web-based survey and “field work” to be conducted through telephone interviews.
Proposed timeline meets statutory requirements and presents a clear plan	Indicates will successfully accomplish the work in the timeframe outlined, with a first draft ready in June 2010. Detailed project plan, deliverables, and time line are included.