

Parent Awareness and Community Outreach Coordinator Tohono O'odham Nation and Pascua Yaqui Tribe Regions

First Things First (FTF), also known as the Arizona Early Childhood Development and Health Board, is a public agency that exists to increase the quality of, and access to, the early childhood development and health system that ensures a child entering school comes healthy and ready to succeed. Passed by voter initiative in 2006, First Things First operates through a tax on tobacco products. Governed by a State Board and Regional Partnership Councils, First Things First is a decentralized organization that engages diverse constituencies to accomplish its mission. Organizational values include a focus on accountability, transparency, coordination, collaboration and on the outcomes that will ensure young children start kindergarten ready for school and life. First Things First acts in accordance with our Beliefs, Actions and Performance statements, which are attached.

Job Summary:

Reporting to the Director of Community Outreach and in collaboration with FTF leadership, staff and Regional Council members, the Parent Awareness and Community Outreach Coordinator will be responsible for executing targeted educational outreach and engagement strategies regarding First Things First in the Tohono O'odham Nation and Pascua Yaqui Tribe regions. These include: presentations (individuals and groups), public speaking, community events, networking meetings, success story writing, media outreach, training, and other outreach strategies as determined. These strategies are targeted toward parents, caregivers, civic-minded individuals, local business and community leaders. This position is based in the First Things First office in Tucson, Arizona.

Distinguishing Characteristics:

The ideal candidate will enthusiastically support the vision and mission of First Things First and possess the personal qualities of integrity and credibility. She/he will have the proven ability to work within teams to accomplish multiple tasks and keep multiple projects organized and progressing. The position requires substantial effort to connect with, build community relations with, and engage targeted audiences within the specified geographic region.

Typical Duties and Responsibilities:

Under the guidance of the Community Outreach Director:

- Work in partnership with central office and FTF Tohono O'odham Nation and Pascua Yaqui Tribe regions staff to engage citizens and organizations in actively championing early childhood development and health.

- In coordination with FTF Tohono O'odham Nation and Pascua Yaqui Tribe Regional Partnership Councils, assume responsibility for outreach in this specific geographical region within a set of outreach targets as part of the Community Outreach team.
- Assist in writing regional outreach plan for assigned geographic region and priority audiences; regularly update outreach plan in coordination with Regional Councils and Regional Directors.
- Assist in creating and managing a community awareness budget.
- Act as an expert resource and spokesperson for First Things First.
- Provide outreach and education to diverse audiences through presentations, trainings, one-on-one meetings and networking, events, media outreach, and other outreach strategies.
- Provide regular follow-up with outreach audiences to ensure they are equipped and trained for engagement activities.
- Track and record outreach activities with database and other tracking tools.
- Collect and write success stories and engage in regional media outreach.
- Other duties as needed to complete FTF outreach goals.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree preferred. Background in community outreach, communications, public relations or related field a plus.
- Strong communication skills, including the ability to write and speak clearly, succinctly, and in a manner that appeals to a wide audience.
- Experience in public presentations and training.
- Experience with educational outreach is a distinct advantage.
- Ability to coordinate multiple projects and events simultaneously.
- Detail oriented with the ability to meet competing deadlines.
- Creative and solution driven.
- Able to work effectively in a team environment to meet goals.
- Must be able to work flexible hours, including some evenings and weekends.
- Comfortable working with minimal supervision and maintaining multiple responsibilities.
- Ability to build and maintain positive relationships.
- Strong computer skills, including database and Internet and intranet proficiency.
- Reliable, regular and punctual attendance at work during core business hours.
- This position requires day and evening travel within the assigned regions and regular travel to FTF Central Phoenix office. Must possess valid Arizona driver's license and show evidence of valid automobile insurance coverage.
- Familiarity with Tohono O'odham Nation and Pascua Yaqui Tribe regions. This position will be responsible for conducting community outreach in the FTF Tohono O'odham Nation and Pascua Yaqui Tribe regions. The regions includes the communities of: the noncontiguous

San Xavier (Tucson) and San Lucy (Gila Bend & Glendale) Districts, Florence Village—a small community outside the City of Florence in Pinal County— and the eight contiguous Districts that make up the majority of Western Pima County and small Southern portions of Maricopa and Pinal Counties. They include Gu Vo, Hickiwan, Sif Oidak, Gu Achi, Pisinemo, Chukut Kuk, Sells, Shuk Toak, and Baboquivari Districts. Also included is the Pascua Pueblo reservation, also known as New Pascua tribal community.
